

Employment Recovery Data

Unemployment in Brighton & Hove

Brighton & Hove unemployment figures were just under 6000 leading up to the pandemic, and after a sharp rise in April and May 2020 remained at around 14000 until first signs of recovery in May 2021.

Unemployment by Age

Unemployment by Gender

Coronavirus Job Retention Scheme

The percentage take up of CJRS in Brighton & Hove was level with the national figure in June and July 2020, but has been slightly above national in the months since.

Brighton & Hove CJRS Take Up By Gender (%)

Brighton & Hove CJRS Take Up April and May 2021 (provisional) by Sector

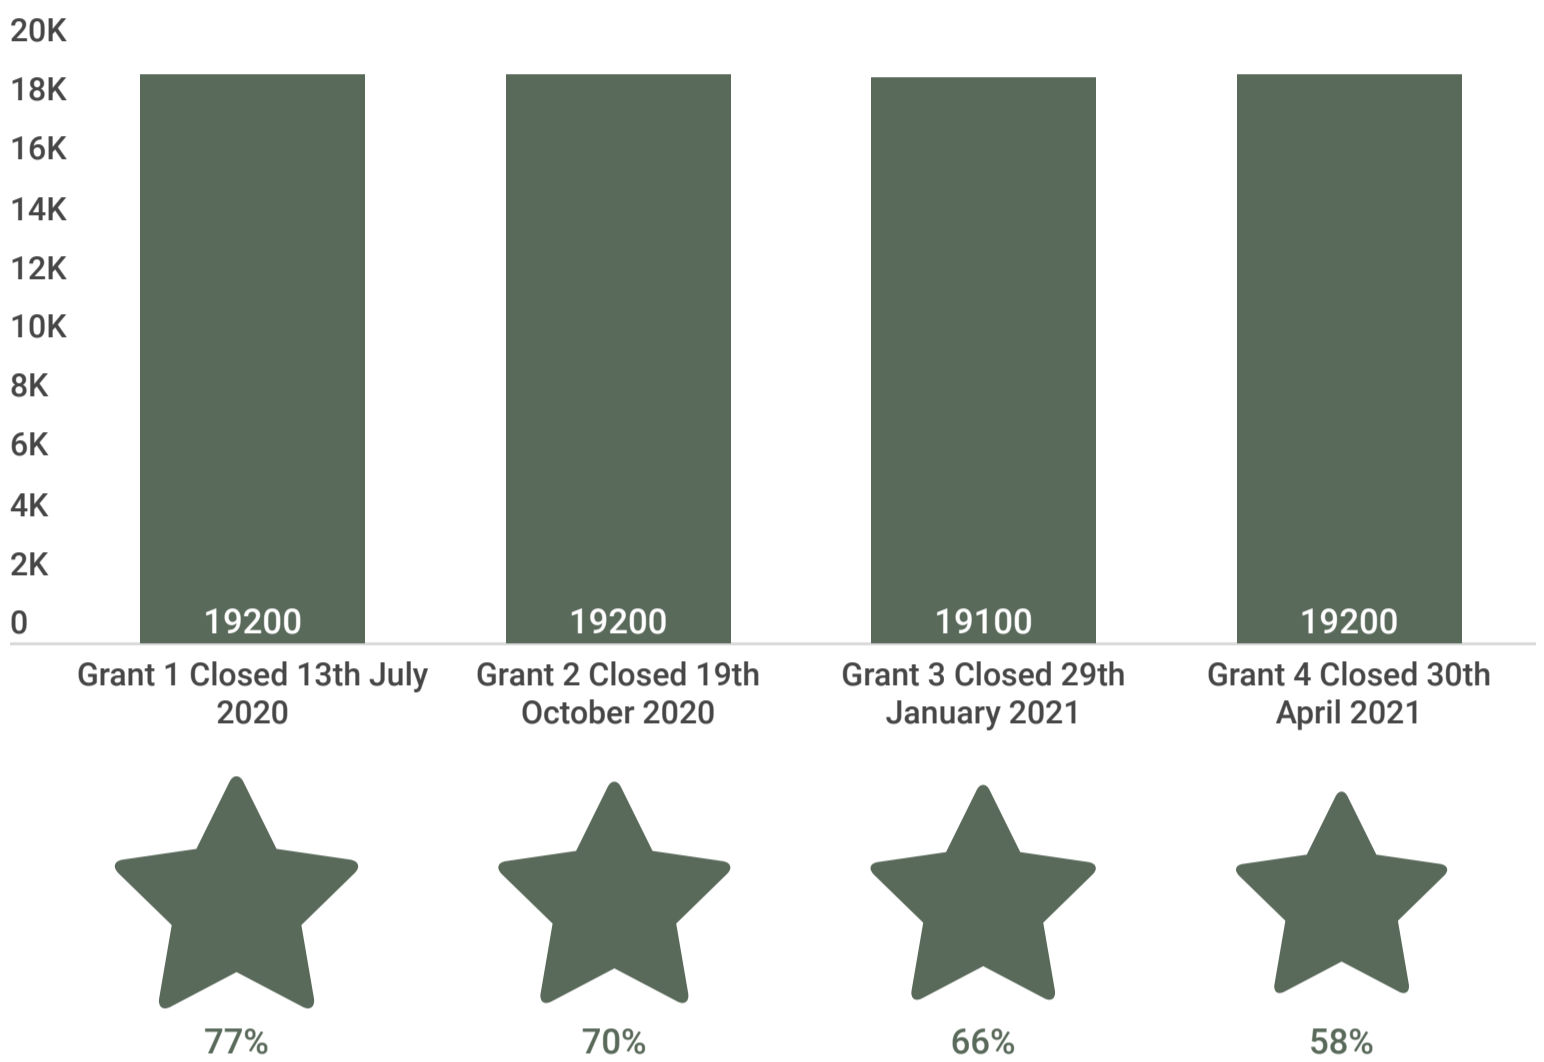

Brighton & Hove and National CJRS Take Up May 2021 (provisional)
Data by Sector, percentage of total furloughs in geographical area

Self Employed Income Support Scheme

SEISS Eligible Population and Percentage Take Up for each grant

The eligible population for SEISS grants in Brighton & Hove has remained fairly static for each grant, but the percentage take up has decreased.

Data Sources

Unemployment: Latest claimant count data released on 15th July 2021 by nomisweb.co.uk, containing information up to June 2021. Dataset includes monthly breakdown by age and gender at local authority level.

Coronavirus Job Retention Scheme: Latest data released on 2nd July 2021 by gov.uk, containing information up to the end of May 2021. Latest release has local authority information by Gender and Sector, and cumulative figures. Sector information only available in recent releases so trend information not available. Data on age and employer size provided at national level.

Self Employed Income Support Scheme: Latest data released on 1st July 2021 by gov.uk, containing information on fourth grant up to 6th June 2021. Claims made includes individuals that have applied and are awaiting payment or have been paid. Excludes error and rejected cases. Latest release has breakdown by gender at local authority level. Age and industry sector available at regional and national level.